

Successful French tech specialising in digital and ecological transition in the energy sector is looking for a French speaking Senior Project Manager. Our client has won a major contract in Scotland, and the role will be firstly to overview the deployment of the digital tools by planning, organizing lead and controlling the project efficiently and effectively and to liaise with local stakeholders private and public. The role might lead to a Country Manager position for the right candidate.

Full product training will be provided

ROLE:

- Driving the development and implementation of the business to meet overall business goals
- Planning and coordinating all aspects of projects from initiation through delivery, including marketing and customer service (call centre) associated to the project
- Identifying needed resources for the project, including sourcing and recruiting electricians
- Organising direct marketing campaign in partnership with stakeholders
- Coordinating activities and tasks among project team members, and client as needed to meet project goals and ensure project completion is on schedule, within budget constraints and of the appropriate quality standards for the project
- Assigning and monitoring work of project team providing technical and analytical support and direction. Interfacing with field-based employees on technical matters as needed.
- Managing issues/problems and activity progress to ensure project goals, e.g., deadline, scope and quality are achieved. Assisting with problem resolution as needed.
- Attending and leading all project meetings
- Communicating with partners and managing their expectations throughout the project delivery process.
- Monitoring performance against contract to meet agreed guidelines
- Maximising opportunities by participating in trade shows, networking events, etc

PROFILE:

- Fluent French and English
- Educated to degree level or similar
- Strong interest for digital and ecological transition
- Extensive knowledge of project management standards, processes, procedures and guidelines
- Demonstrated skill in managing project budgets and timelines
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills
- Excellent communicator with the ability to provide clear and concise instructions
- Show initiative to solve problems and provide innovative ideas
- Ability to travel to France when necessary

SALARY & BENEFITS

- Between £45 000 and £50 000 according to skills and experience
- 25 days holidays