

Industry specialist in chemical cleaning and in the development of mobile treatment units is looking for a Supervisor. You will manage small and professional teams on industrial cleaning projects, will supervise the work on sites and will liaise with the clients to solve any problems. You will work mostly in UK industrial sites but will also have projects abroad. You will report to the UK Manager based in Manchester.

Ideally you will be living in Manchester area.

ROLE:

- Visiting work sites and gathering technical element for helping the project manager to answer to a RFQ.
- Preparing and supervising effluents treatments or industrial cleaning projects:
 - Setting up and following procedures according to the project and the use of the company equipment including mobile units for effluent treatments, electro-mechanical equipment to use for cleaning products, training staff
- Site managing own and core staff, liaising with clients during the cleaning operation, reporting on regular basis to the UK Manager
- Following and managing projects liaising with the UK manager and the operational manager
- Writing on-going reports
- Preparing, maintaining et following-up mandatory controls of the equipment (pumps, flexibles hoses, fittings ...)
- Stock management of chemical products

PROFILE:

- Min 5-10 years experience as a supervisor in industrial environment, ideally in Oil&Gas or Power plant or related industries however our client will also consider candidates with previous experience in construction, welding, and mechanical industries.
- Experience in man-management and technical training
- Strong communications skills as you will liaise with clients as well as staff
- Initiatives, time management as well as problem solving skills will be key to this role
- IT literate
- Ability to work abroad from time to time
- Clean driving licence

SALARY and BENEFITS

- Basic between £30 et £40k negotiable according to skills and experience
- Extra bonus when working abroad
- Company van, mobile phone and tablet

French Resources Ltd – 0845 519 1945 – info@french-resources.co.uk

Registered office: Heathmans House, 19 Heathmans Road, LONDON SW6 4TJ. Registered in England and Wales No. 6956655