

VISA SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITY

Our client is an innovative company operating in industrial cleaning and treatment of sludge and liquid effluents in 6 countries. They offer comprehensive industrial chemical cleaning services, mobile treatment units, evaluations, advice, and pollution control equipment sales and rentals. They are looking for an Operational Coordinator with an engineering background to manage the day-to-day operations, coordinating with clients and internal teams, ensuring efficient project delivery, providing excellent customer service, and offering administrative assistance as needed. Their clients are mainly Oil & Gas major players, and they are also working in industries such as pharma, food, breweries, etc. They are based in Great Manchester region and the Operational Coordinator will share his/her time between the office and their clients' sites.

ROLE of the Operations Coordinator:

- Following and managing projects liaising with management
- Supervising the work on sites and liaising with the clients to solve any problems
- Making sure that procedures are set up and followed according to the project
- Liaising with clients during the cleaning operation, reporting to the UK director
- Writing on-going reports and assisting with administrative duties
- Organising mandatory controls of the equipment (pumps, flexible hoses, fittings ...)
- Management stock of chemical products

PROFILE:

- Graduated as an Engineer from a French engineering school – our client will provide sponsorship to work in the UK
- Previous operations and project management experience
- Good IT skills
- Excellent communication skills at all levels
- Experience in Administrative Assistance
- Attention to detail and organisational skills as well as strong multi-tasking skills
- Ability to work well under pressure and meet deadlines
- Knowledge of environmental regulations is a plus
- Driving licence

SALARY & BENEFITS:

- Between £35k and £50k/y according to skills and experience
- All visa costs will be paid, including the health fee
- Company van, mobile phone and tablet